We invite you to uplift your posture and let a long exhale soften your chest. Expand out a little more and settle. It is such a gift to have this simple practice to remind us of all the life force that wants to come through us!

Connect with us to learn more about our new offering. We are excited to bring the Leadership Embodiment Coach Training (LECT) program to Washington DC and we would like to share with you a bit more about the program and the opportunity.

The program is designed for experienced coaches and facilitators offering the core foundations of LE training exercises with a focus on working with individuals and small groups/teams.

HOSTED BY GWU CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE IN PUBLIC LEADERSHIP WITH GUEST PARTNER TIPHANI PALMER
